-Deed

To the Honorable W.T. Miller, Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia.

Your orators, J.S. Moore and E.W. Moore, partners trading under the firm name of J.S. Moore & Son, will state unto your honor that on the --day of January, 1894, their salesman sold to J.F. Howard a Bill of Merchandise; that your orators refused to ship said goods, not knowing said Howard's financial condition, until he sent them a statement of his worth; that in January your orator sent to said Howard a blank statement for him to fill out, and that on January 30, 1894, said Howard filled out said statement and signed the same and sent it to your orator, which statement is herewith filed as part hereof, marked "Howard Statement", and your orator also files said Howard's letter bearing date January 31, 1894, as part hereof, marked "Howard Letter". Your orator will further state that, relying upon said statement as being true, they shipped to said Howard said bill of goods, and still relying upon said statement as being true, on March 8, 23 and 26th they shipped other goods to said Howard, and on April 7, 14 and 28th they shipped other goods to said Howard, and your orators herewith files an itemized statement of all of said goods, as part hereof, marked "J.S. Moore & Son Account". Your orators aver~~y~~ that if they had not relied upon said statement made ~~by~~ said Howard, they would not have shipped said goods; and your orators further aver~~y~~ that said goods were shipped to said Howard per his order and at his instant and request; and your orators aver~~y~~ that said J.F. Howard is justly indebted to them in the sum of $415.64 for goods, wares and Merchandise sold and delivered as above stated; and your orators further aver~~y~~ that said Howard is further indebted to your orator in the sum of $2.35, being the amount that your orators paid for protest fee on a check given by said Howard July 5, 1894, to your orators w^hich check and protest fee is herewith filed as part hereof, marked "Check and Protest".

Your orators aver that they have often demanded said Howard to pay to them the aforesaid sums of money, but that he has refused and neglected to pay the same, or any part thereof, and the same is now due and payable to your orators.

Your orators aver that said J.F. Howard, being largely indebted to various persons and firms, on the 12 day of May, 1894, or a few days thereafter, assigned ~~and~~ to John W. Howard and Claud Howard, his brothers, ^{doing business in the firm name of Soda Fountain} his whole stock of goods, wares and merchandise at Olinger, Lee County, Virginia, with intent to hinder, delay and defraud your orators; and your orator avers that said J.F. Howard, on the 12th day of May, 1894, or a few days thereafter, converted his aforesaid stock of goods ^{and Soda fountain} into notes, given by his aforesaid brothers, to him, with intent to hinder, delay and defraud your orators; and your orators further aver that the aforesaid assignment or the alledged sale of the aforesaid goods, wares and merchandise ^{Soda fountain} by J.F. Howard to his aforesaid brothers, and the execution of the aforesaid notes by his brothers to him, was each and all done for the express purpose and intent to defraud your orators; and your orators further aver that since the alledged sale of said goods the said John W. Howard has been shipping ~~small quantities of~~ said goods to the wife of John F. Howard, Kingsport, Tennessee, for the purpose and with the intent to defraud your orators; and your orators further aver that said notes executed to J.F. Howard by his aforesaid brothers have been assigned to said J.F. Howard's wife for the express purpose of defrauding your orators and the other creditors of said Howard.

Your orators aver that J.F. Howard and Claud Howard are non-residents of the state of Virginia; that J.F. Howard owns a piece of real ^{80 but by 100 feet} estate worth about $50.00, at Olinger, Lee County,

J. W. Howard and Claud

Virginia,. Your orators aver that the aforesaid $415.64 bears interest from June 1,1894, and the $2.35 bears interest from July 5,1894, and that each of said sums has long since been due and payable.

Your orators pray that said ~~J.F.Howard~~, J.W.Howard and Cland don't know as opposed, and J.F. Howard Howard be made party defendants to this bill, and be required to answer the same, but answer under oath is hereby waived; that the goods, Wares and Merchandise and Dole fountain and said lot on now in possession of J.W.Howard at Olinger, Virginia, be attached and sold to satisfy your orators' debt; and that said merchandise shall be set aside and decreed that your orators recover of J.F.Howard the sum of $415.64 with interest thereon as aforesaid, and $2.35 with interest as aforesaid, and cost of this suit; that proper process issue; and that your honor will grant unto your orators such other, further and general relief as their case requires.

And they will ever pray etc.
